NEGRO SUFFRAGE IN THE DISTRICT .- When our report closed yesterday of the proceedings in the Senate on the bill to regulate the elective tranchise in the District of Columbia, Mr. Willey was defining his position in regard to certain amendments proposed by him. He maintained that Congress had no right to interfere with suffrage in the States, and said that as he acted from conscientious convictions he could not abandon his position though it should terminate his connection with the Senate. He did not believe that suffrage was a natural right; thought—if practicable—the blacks should be separated from the whites. If the negro was able to carry the bayonet he was able to vote, and the only good reason which could be urged against extending the franchise to him was in case it should disturb the peace and security of the country. As to the talk about social equality, he did not consider every worthless white man who voted as his equal. It was said that it would lead to intermarriage among the races; he did not think so, but if so, the negro would have the worst of the bargain. Mr. W. then advocated his amendment, which he said recognized the principles of negro suffrage.
Upon the conclusion of Mr. Willey's remarks, the Senate went into executive session without taking action upon his amendments

(which we gave in the Star yesterday.)
The following is the bill as it now stands: That, from and after the passage of this act, each and every male person, excepting paupers and persons under guardianship, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who has not been convicted of any infamous crime or offense, and who is a citizen of the United States, and who shall have resided in the said District for the period of six months previous to any election therein, excepting persons who may have voluntarily left the District to give aid and comfort to the late rebellion, shall be entitled to the elective franchise, and shall be deemed an elector and entitled to vote at any election in said District, without any distinction on account of color or race.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That any person whose duty it shall be to receive votes at any election within the District of Columbia who shall wilfully refuse to receive or wilfully reject the vote of any person entitled to such right under this act shall be liable to an action of tort by the person injured, and shall be liable, on indictment and conviction, if such act was done knowingly, to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding one year in the jail of said District,

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall wilfully interrupt or disturbany such elector in the exercise of such franchise, he or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof. shall be fined in any sum not to exceed $1,000. or be imprisoned in the jail in said District for a period not to exceed thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court. Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the several courts having criminal jurisdiction in said District to give this act in special charge to the grand jury at the commencement of each term of the court. Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That the Mayors and Aldermen of the cities of Washington and Georgetown, respectively, on or before the first day of March in each year, shall prepare a list of the persons they judge to be qualified to vote in the several wards of said cities in any election; and said Mayors and Aldermen shall be in open session to receive evidence of the qualification of persons claiming the right to vote in any election therein, and for correcting said list, on two days in each year, not exceeding five days prior to the annual election for the choice of city officers, giving previous notice of the time and place of session in some newspaper printed in said District.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted. That on or before the - day of ----, the Mayors and Aldermen of said cities shall post up a list of voters thus prepared in one or more public places in said cities respectively, at least ten days prior to said annual election. Sec. S. And be it further enacted. That the officers presiding at any election shall keep and use the check list herein required at the polls during the election of all officers, and no vote shall be received unless delivered by the voter in person, and not until the presiding officer has had opportunity to be satisfied of his idennity, and shall find his name on the list, and mark it, and ascertain that his vote is single.

THE AQUEDUCT BRIDGE AT GEORGETOWN In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. Henderson, from the Committee for the District of Columbia, reported a bill relating to the Aqueduct bridge of the Alexandria Canal Company over the Potomac river at Georgetown The first section, after reciting the amounts received at different times by the canal company from the United States, aggregating $300,000, to secure the payment of which the Corporation of Alexandria were required to deposit the stock in said company held by them in the hands of the Secretary of the Treasury in trust for the payment, and to be sold under certain circum. stances, provided that the Secretary of the Interior be authorized and required to open negetiations with the Alexandria Canal Company for the purchase of said Aqueduct bridge. and that the company may transfer to the United States all right and title therein: Pro. vided, that the amount loaned to that company, with interest at six per cent. per annum, shall be used in payment of the amount agreed upon, and provided that the city of Georgetown shall enter into a contract to construct a suitable draw in said bridge to admit of the passage of vessels, and to so reconstruct the bridges within its jurisdiction over the Chesa. peake and Ohio Canal and its connections, as to allow the passage of canal boats from said canal into the Potomacriver. It provides further, that the Secretary of the Interior shall take a deed to the United States for this purchase, such as shall be approved by the Attorney General. If the Secretary shall be unable to agree relative to the purchase, he may petition to the Supreme Court of the District for proceedings to condemn and transfer the bridge for public use, and the court is empowered to appoint not less than three nor more than twelve commissioners to appraise the property. The Secretary is empowered to make the collection authorized of the Corporation of CHARGE OF PICKING A POCKET.-Yesterday Officer S. W. Taylor, of the Third Ward, ar rested Henry Pettit upon a charge of picking the pocket of Francis R. May, sr., of $40. The case was taken before Justice Morsell. It appeared in the evidence that the accused was in company with the defendant nearly the entire day at the Model House, corner of F and 9th streets. Mr. May went into a room and laid down to sleep, the prisoner was seen in the room pretending to awaken Mr. May, and was afterward seen with the pocket book in his possession. The Justice considered the evidence conclusive and sent the prisoner to jail for court.

HORSE STEALING .- Yesterday, officer Mc-Chesney, of the 2d precinct, arrested a negro named John Bird on suspicion of stealing a horse which he had in his possession. Although he was taken with the horse, when taken to the station house he denied that he had ever saw the animal. From his statement it is supposed the horse was stolen in Maryland, probably near Rockville. He was sent to jail for further hearing by Justice Miller.

THE WASHINGTON NATIONAL MONUMENT Society.-Lieut. Gen. Grant, elected second Vice President of the Washington National Monument Society, at their last meeting, has in a note to the secretary, (J. C.
